

i think we should have a choice.im a truck driver and it helps being able to check updated weather before i make my trip.plus it is a safety issue on the traffic if there is a accident and me and other drivers know about it we can take another rt. it will help police and rescue squad by it being less traffic to deal with. xm with weather channels is the best thing since c.b. radios